

Acing Your Manual Speeches

Afternoon Session : 12.30am to 5.30pm

26 February 2005

Do you know the Secrets of a Great Storyteller :

- How to tell a GREAT story?
- What are the Storytelling ESSENTIALS?

And learn the fool-proof methods of tackling Advanced Manuals :

(run concurrently – choose ONE)

- Speeches by Management
- Technical Presentations: Making them useful, accessible & interesting
- Speaking to Inform
- Interpersonal Communication

If you say ‘yes’ to any one or all of the above, join us and learn from very experienced speakers :

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS :

Denise Bertrand on the “Secrets of Storytelling”

Denise Bertrand has 20 years experience as a performer, teacher, storyteller, director and consultant for drama and communication arts activities.

She is a highly innovative speaker who brings to any workshop or training she conducts, commitment, vision, a sense of humor and an uncanny way of utilising the moment to exhilarate the class.

She has performed in China, New York, Los Angeles, Italy, Singapore and all across Canada.

Originally from Canada, Ms. Bertrand has been living and working in Singapore since 1999. She has been conducting her own unique corporate and non-corporate training workshops; ‘Speak with Power and Passion’; ‘Storytelling with Power and Passion for Business’; Discover your Story Telling Talent; Read and Tell Dramatically; Discover your Story Writing Talent; as well as custom designing educational curriculums to match her clients needs. Some of her clients include: Singapore National Employers Federation (SNEF); Deutsche Bank; Times Publishing; BrightFire Engineering Systems, Prosafe Productions, Act 3 International and Raffles Learning Centre in Suzhou China.

In 2005, she will be launching “Team Building with Drama” for corporations in Singapore, China and Thailand.

Lynn Desker on “Speeches by Management”

Lynn Desker has been an active Toastmaster since 1993, and is an enthusiastic advocate of the Toastmasters International Program for professional and personal development.

She is a professional with a Masters degree in Career Development. She currently facilitates meetings with management teams, delivers training on career development topics including effective presentation skills, and coaches professionals and executives to enhance their professional and personal effectiveness.

She has conducted workshops in Singapore and the United States for adults in career transition as has made presentations to her peers on career development topics.

She continues to push beyond her fears and fall safely from greater heights. Her latest successful jump was from a height of 8,000 feet from a hot-air baloon."

Kan Kin Fung on “Technical Presentations”

Kan Kin Fung, DTM, has given hundreds of technical presentations in eight countries, on subjects such as microchips, improvement methodologies, and computers.

He has done all fifteen Toastmasters Advanced Manuals.

He pioneers a systematic method to select Advanced Manuals & plans the Advanced Toastmasters programme.

John YH Tan on “Speaking to Inform”

John YH Tan is a member of District 80 Education and Training Task Force and is an Advanced Toastmaster. He is the Immediate Past President and Vice President (Membership) of Siglap Toastmasters Club.

John enjoys interacting and learning with Toastmasters who take charge of their own learning and development. He has vast experience managing and delivering impactful speeches. He will expound with us how Speeches To Inform speeches can be educational, entertaining and enjoyable for everyone in audience through careful preparation.

Albert Lim on “Interpersonal Communication”

Albert Lim Hock Seng is currently a member of the District 80 Education & Training Task Force. An active Toastmaster, he held appointments as Club President, Area Governor, and is much sought after as a Chief Judge and Judge at various Area and Club Toastmaster Contests. He has given Project, Language and General Evaluations in Club Meetings. Professionally,

Albert is a Senior Financial Adviser with a leading stock-broking firm in Singapore, and has had wide experience in financial and retirement planning in the last twelve years. An active Church member, he is on the Trinity Annual Conference Board of Social Concerns of The Methodist Church in Singapore.

Date : Saturday, 26 February 2005

Time : 12.30pm – 5.30pm (Lunch served from 12.30 pm to 1.30 pm)

Venue Host : AIA Changi, 160 Changi Road Singapore 419728

Investment : $15.00 (includes great buffet lunch and afternoon tea)

*For those registering for both the morning and afternoon sessions, your investment is only $20. Students at half-price!

Hurry! Limited Seats. Register Now! For reservation of seats, call Lawrence Quek @ 9459-4197 or James Leung @ 9066-3723.

Brought to you by :

District 80 Education & Training Task Force led by LGET, Dr Khong Chooi Peng, DTM, James Lim DTM, Albert Lim, Lawrence Quek and Patrick Tan T.K.